LICENSING AND REPRINT OPTIONS/POLICIES
NEW AND REVISED MASS SETTINGS

The following options/policies are currently effective for reprinting new and revised Mass settings under WLP copyright:

Reprint options:

Annual Reprint License - $225 or $300 fee. Not dependent on size of congregation or number of copies printed. One year term, access to all WLP copyrighted music, free access to assembly editions in the Click and Print Hymn file library. Allows the printing of a pew card. Usage must be reported according to the license terms. More info. and sample forms at: http://www.wlp.jspaluch.com/reprint_permissions.htm

Seasonal Mass License - $70 fee for as many elements of a Mass setting as you select. No limit as to copies printed. Seasonal term corresponding to a liturgical season, with some exceptions (a “season” is typically a 6-week period).

Permanent Hymnal/Songbook/Songsheet License – 6 cents, per Mass element, per copy printed; $25 minimum fee. Permanent duration (one year or longer).

Policies:

Melody and text only may be reprinted in a worship aid (song sheet, pamphlet, bulletin) for non-commercial use (for example, parish, school, religious community), or projected, if the license permits.

All music/text, including ICEL text, must be properly acknowledged, according to the format in the license agreement. Copyright notices may be found for the music and the text in the musical editions of the Mass settings.

Additional terms and restrictions are set forth in the various license agreements.

Special Accommodations for Posting Recordings to Parish Websites:

WLP’s Mass CD sound files and corresponding printed assembly parts may be posted to a parish website to assist in teaching cantors, choir and congregation, without the need for a license or fee.

Restrictions – Sound files must be streamed ONLY and may not be downloadable.

Printed music must be view-only and not downloadable.

6-month posting period.

Copyright acknowledgments for text (including ICEL text) and music must be posted (acknowledgments for the recording are located in the CD booklet).
